

It's About Building... Relationships, Economy, Community

Jo-Ann L. Schofield,
Chairwoman of the Board
President, Mentor Rhode Island

The people you surround yourself with can elevate your performance or drag you down. The Chamber is an amazing team. I have seen firsthand positive interactions at networking events... and I've seen the community come together at Movies in the Park and the Rocky Point 5k. This Chamber is about building relationships, building the local economy and community.

Make an Investment in Your Business... and Your Community

Rick Nagele,
Advantage Marketing Information

I joined the Chamber to contribute to community while helping my business grow. A double win!

Central Rhode Island Chamber staff and volunteers invested 3,304 hours in strengthening our region and building partnerships last year. And this doesn't include troubleshooting for members – a real benefit, when the system bites back. Oh the phone calls I've heard!

I've been a member for 19 years. Considering the modest dues, I can't even calculate the ROI (the number would be so big, you just wouldn't believe it). So check out the Central Rhode Island Chamber for yourself.

Arthur Dwyer, Sales Manager
Wood's Heating & Oil

The Chamber is the most awesome resource for networking opportunities! Most of all the staff is a great resource, they know all the Chamber businesses and are always available to help. They have certainly lived up to their great reputation.

Welcome to Central Rhode Island

Gregory A. Gould
Relationship Manager
Webster Bank

Guests and new residents spend money and tell others about our community. The Chamber helps create great experiences by getting people the information they need to enjoy their visit... or their life here.
